

Guiding Principles

- Protect Washington State's economy
- The surplus line market is secondary (complementary); the admitted market is primary
- Recognize and preserve the interests of consumers
- Promote ease of compliance with and enforcement of laws and regulations
- No solution will exalt form over substance